

SPRING 2019 FRONTLIST

Gently, Bentley!

Written and illustrated by Caragh Buxton

A little rhino charges around his house and school. Everyone reminds him to be more careful, but his clumsiness continues. Will he remember to be gentle when it's most important?

Hide and Seek

Written and illustrated by Polly Noakes

A meadow is the perfect place to play hide and seek - there are bridges to creep under and masses of wildflowers to use for cover. In grass high enough to conceal a bear, the protagonist must use all of her senses to track her animal companions! She can smell them, and hear them, but she can't quite find them. Can you spot the stealthy wolf on each spread? Will the girl find her friends, or will the wolf find her first?

King Leonard's Teddy

Written and illustrated by Phoebe Swan

King Leonard enjoys a decadent lifestyle and whenever something he owns breaks, he discards it and buys a new replacement. Soon, he has a large pile of discarded objects outside his castle. One evening, his favorite teddy falls apart and he has no choice but to search the town for someone who can mend it. Unfortunately, like Leonard, the townspeople are in the habit of throwing away broken things and no one is able to help. Will Leonard find a way to fix his friend, or will he have to add his teddy to the heap of trash by the castle?

Chatterbook Illustrated by Jo Byatt

Babies love to chatter with their toys. In these books, the puppet can actually respond. Help baby re-enact everyday experiences, pretending to be the parent, while the puppet plays the part of the child. Great for encouraging recognition and participation in different activities. There's a ready-made rhyming conversation in these books, and you can make up your own as well! Talking with your baby fosters the early development of basic language and communication skills, and promotes emotional closeness and wellbeing.

Baby Board Books Illustrated by Annie Kubler

This award winning series has been specifically designed for babies. A great introduction to books through well-known nursery rhymes and interactive text. Singing songs and rhymes is the perfect way to bond with your baby and share quality time. It also aids language development by introducing them to the natural sounds and patterns of speech. Combining these with actions also stimulates the brain and helps muscle development.
